

This puzzle is a PDF which can be found here.

It was originally part of a puzzle hunt (i.e. a chain of puzzles) that I put together in 2015, which is why it references a “next clue” and a Gmail account, but it still can stand as its own work. (The Gmail account’s password has since been changed.)

The idea for this puzzle came to me from a NACLO puzzle with a similar theme.

The answer is inside this box in white text, which you can highlight to reveal. If you are using a screen reader, know that only spoilers follow.
